That whereas the Government of Canada is seeking an outlet on the Georgian Bay for the Trent Valley Canal And whereas the route of such outlet will shortly be decided upon, And whereas the Council of this County is convinced of the unquestionable superiority of the route through this County by way of the Kempenfelt Bay and the Nottawasaga River particularly as its adoption would assist in the reclamation of a large acreage of most valuable land, thereby adding materially to the wealth not only to several Municipalities in the County but also to the County itself and also to the Province of Ontario,

Therefore it is hereby ordered that the Warden and Councillor Mr. E. Dermott be a special committee to draw the attention of the Dominion Government in conjunction with other Municipalities to the advantages of this route, either by communication, deputation or otherwise as they may deem most expedient, the expenses of said committee to paid on the order of the Warden.
