

Rapid Re-Housing

RENT ALLOWANCE PROGRAM

Rapid Re-Housing rent allowance program supports shelter diversion strategies within the community.

This targeted program focuses on moderate acuity households and individuals who can quickly exit homelessness and be resettled into rental accommodations with additional supports.

Through the Rapid Re-Housing Program, supports can include the rental allowance subsidy, paid directly to the landlord for up to nine months.

The goal of the program is to provide immediate permanent rental housing options along with short-term supports to allow for quick exit from homelessness.
