Simcoe County Homeless Services and Support System Common Consent Form

Homeless Individuals and Families Information System (HIFIS)

What is the “Simcoe County Homeless Individuals and Families Information System - “the system”?”

It is an electronic database where a group of agencies can share your personal information to work together to help you find and/or maintain a place to live. Non-identifying information may be shared with the municipal, provincial and federal governments to better plan programs working to end homelessness.

Who will use your information?

The types of Community Service Providers who will have access to your information include:

Street Outreach	Housing Resource Centre	Transitional Housing
Emergency Shelter	Housing First Program	Housing Support Service
Income Support	Rapid Re-Housing Program	Coordinated Access System

What if you change your mind about your personal information being shared?

- You can remove your consent to have your personal information contained in the electronic database at any time by speaking to staff at the County of Simcoe or one of the Community Service Providers.
- If you remove your consent, Community Service Providers will enter no additional information and staff will still work with you to help you find housing outside of the system.

There are times where your personal information may be shared without your consent. These are when:

- A person has experienced or may be at-risk of abuse or harm;
- A person is a direct threat to themselves or another person;
- A court order requires information to be shared.
