Ordered: That this Council desire to express their great satisfaction in the measure now before Parliament for reducing into a Code the Criminal Law of Canada

And especially as it comprehends matters within the jurisdiction of Justices of the Peace, We believe such a measure will be of great practical utility, and will dispense with the necessity of a considerable Library on Criminal Law (which Magistrates cannot usually afford) in thus reducing the whole body of the Criminal Law into one Volume, And this Council think great Credit is due to the Ministers of Justice for their broad and comprehensive Law reform upon a branch of the Law which affects Monetary interests, and would most earnestly recommend that while the type is up a sufficient number of Copies should be printed to supply all engaged in the administration of the Criminal Law with Copies, for we cannot doubt that so beneficial a measure as that now before Parliament will become Law
